GAME LEADERS

SAVANNAH, Ga. - The No. 20-ranked Armstrong State University volleyball squad picked up a pair of wins on Saturday, running their current win streak to 10 with a 3-1 Peach Belt Conference win over Lander and a 3-0 non-conference victory over Mount Olive.

The pair of victories pushed the Pirates' record to 15-1 overall and 9-0 in the Peach Belt. Armstrong also extended its current regular season conference winning streak to 36.

In the first match against the Bearcats (13-5, 3-5 PBC), the Pirates won 25-19, 25-18, 20-25, 25-13, behind a very strong hitting performance. Sophomore Rachel Thompson led five players in double digit kills in the match and Thompson hit .750 with 15 kills and no errors in 20 attacks, the best single match hitting performance in Armstrong volleyball history for a player with 20 or more attacks.

As a team, the Pirates hit .364, which is the fourth-highest single-match hitting percentage in a four-set match, while also collecting 72 kills, the ninth-most ever in a four-set match. Senior Stephanie Sfara notched 17 kills and 20 digs in the win, while sophomore Anna McGee added 15 kills. Emily Wylie chipped in 11 kills and Taylor Permenter had 10. Senior Kamryn Sherman deliverd 69 assists, which is tied for the third-most in a four-set match in Armstrong history.

Lander was led by Kendall Korte's 14 kills, Jessica Register's 35 assits and Julia Ferreira-Alves' 13 digs.

In the second match of the afternoon, the Pirates hit a stellar .420 in defeating the Trojans (5-15) by a 25-17, 25-16, 25-10 count. Armstrong was led by Taylor Permenter's nine kills and .615 hitting percentage, while Sherman delivered an all-around outstanding match with 26 assists, 14 digs, six kills, four service aces and two blocks.

Armstrong returns to action on Tuesday, October 14th, hosting Albany State in a 7:00 p.m. non-conference match at the ARC.
